

legal support

Our legal division specialises in the recruitment of permanent and temporary legal support staff. Whatever the size and nature of your practice, we tailor our processes to achieve the best results allowing you to concentrate on your day to day activities.

our promise

We guarantee a reliable and proficient service where your business will be professionally represented throughout the recruitment process. We recognise that cultural fit is as fundamental to a good placement as having the correct technical skills. It is because we have taken the time to get to know our clients and candidates that we can add this personal touch.

our service tools include:

- Dedicated, single point of contact
- Extensive database and candidate network
- Key competency and cultural identification
- Candidate testing including audio typing and spreadsheets
- Experienced recruitment team with comprehensive local knowledge

Our approach is to build a complete picture of your practice, which includes your market placing, your culture, the department and your specific needs. From this we are able to provide the best recruitment solution to ensure you are presented with the best possible candidates.

additional services

By being constantly in touch with our clients we are able to compile comprehensive salary surveys representing firms of all sizes for all legal support roles. For further information please contact one of our consultants.
